The Kamo-Tuuta Scholarship was established through the Will of Minnie Te Miri Kamo, late of Kaiapoi. The purpose of the Scholarship is for the purpose of facilitating post-graduate study through a University, or other recognised tertiary education system.

Who is eligible?

The scholarship is available to the following:

- > Members of the Peter Kamo, husband of Minnie Te Miri Kamo, family.
- > Members of the George Tuuta (also known as George Toko Tuuta), father of Minnie Te Miri Kamo, family.
- > If no family members in any year are available for the scholarship, then any other Maori student of Te Atiawa or Arawa descent may apply.

NB: Family members of Peter Kamo and George Tuuta will include Whangai family members.

How much funding is available?

A maximum of $5,000 will be awarded to an applicant.

How to apply:

Applications must be completed and emailed, with the required supporting documents, to Public Trust via funding@publictrust.co.nz. Applications may be submitted at any time in the year. Please see the application form for the required documents.
